ARRIVAL OF THE ETNA.

The screw steamship Etna, from Liverpool January 25, arrived at this port last evening. Her dates are the same as those brought by the Canada, at Boston.

in the House of Lords on the 27th ult., Lord Brougham moved for a return of the quantity of cotton imported into this country during the two years ending 31st December, 1866, and of the revenue derived by the country therefrom. The noble and learned Lord called attention to the injury inflicted upon commerce by the imposition of trifling duties on important articles of trade, and ex-expressed a hope that the government would put an end to the source of revenue from which no benefit was received and commensurate to the injury and annoyance it inflicted upon the trading community.

Lord Woodhouse remarked that most favorable accounts had been received from Doctor Livingstone of the capabilities of Africa as a cotton producing country. After some remarks from the Bishop of Oxford and Earl Grey, the motion was agreed to.

The Paris Constitutionnel, of the 28th ult., publishes several articles of the commercial treaty between France and England, which are as follows :—
On and after the 1st of July, 1860, the import duties on cotton and wool will be suppressed.
English pit coal and coke will be subjected to the same duties as the Belgian coal.

After October, 1860, a duty of seven francs will be substituted for the actual duty on iron.

From December, 1860, the duties on the importation of machinery will be diminished.

From January, 1861, the duty on sugar will be reduced.

From June, 1861, the prohibitions on the importation of breads, tinsnes and hemp will be replaced by a duty of

From October, 1861, all remaining prohibitions will be abolished.

In Paris on the 27th, rentes opened at 68 55 and receded to 68 40. 3:25 P. M.—The markets remained inactive. Rentes closed at 68 50, or the same as yesterday.

THE MARRIAGE OF MISS MARY ANN, DAUGHTER OF MR. JAMES MARRIAGE, TO MR. JAMES MARRIAGE, WAS CELEBRATED AT THE CHURCH OF ST. MARY, ON SATURDAY, 10TH JANUARY, 1869.

CLUE TO THE PERPETRATORS.—The murder of Mr. W. Tuers, in State street, remains involved in as much mystery as ever. No clue has yet been obtained to the perpetrator or perpetrators. With regard to the cause of the murder, two theories are advanced. First, that the deceased was knocked down for the purpose of robbery, and that his assailants were frightened away before having time revenge, either by those whose discharge from the Coast House patrol he had occasioned, or by assassins hired for the purpose. The latter theory is more generally accepted. The Corcoran's investigation this morning will be looked forward to with much interest, from the fact that the circumstances of the murder will be 'more fully developed' and in this way some light, perhaps, be thrown upon it.

priest, delivered a very interesting sermon last evening at St. Joseph's church, in Brooklyn. The text or subject was the "Infallibility of the Church." St. Joseph's was densely thronged with a sympathetic and attentive congregation. The sermon was replete with strong arguments, based on the literal word of God, and was of lengthy, occupying three hours in the delivery. At the conclusion of the sermon, the choir sang the following

INCENDIARY FIRE IN TROY STREET.—Last evening about eight o'clock a fire broke out in the rear basement of a frame dwelling house No. 21 Troy street, owned and occupied by Robert Peterson. The flames were extinguished with a few barrels of water. The fire was no doubt is always a crowd of carts, omnibuses and pedestrians this part of Fulton street, the consequences of even the portion of the wall coming down would be frightful.

We have no desire to record any more accidents of this nature, we call upon the authorities to have it pulled down, or prevent persons passing that point until so thing is done towards removing the danger.

NEW BAND FOR THE SEVENTH REGIMENT.—Mr. C. S. G. formerly leader of Shelton's celebrated Brass Band, has organized a new band for the Seventh regiment, the old corps having been dissolved. The band will consist of forty pieces, and will have an entirely new constitution, to supply each of the members, will cost the regiment of $2,000. Mr. G. is an excellent musician and composer, and will doubtless keep up the reputation for good music which the Seventh regiment has long enjoyed.

Police Intelligence.

On Saturday night, he was accosted by two men, who invited him to go on board a vessel lying at one of the wharves and when aboard the vessel one of the men seized him and threatened to kill him if he did not hand over his money. He refused and the other ruffian then rifled his pockets of a breast-knife and other articles, with which both then fled.

ATTEMPT TO CIRCULATE COUNTERFEIT MONEY.—On Saturday night an attempt was made to flood the city with counterfeit 2's on the North River Bank. The party, who ph was at once put into operation, and the storekeeper was warned, so that it is probable but few of the worthless bills were circulated. George Cole was arrested charged with attempting to pass one of the bills on Zedekiah Jacobs, of 254 Greenwich street, in payment for eight cents worth of tobacco. Cole was yesterday held for examination by Justice Osborne. James Johnson and James Bothell were arrested in the First ward, and Henry
